JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Annual Pony Show Opened Today at Wynnewood Home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clothier. Strange Happenings

MISS MARGARET O. REMAK

Miss Remak will be an aide at the pony show which will be held this afternoon at the country place of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clothier in closed their city house and will pass the summer in Radnor.

Wynnewood

The marriage of Mass Helen Fling, daugh-

Mr. Morris Herkness, of Meadowbrook,

The annual fete for the Abington Memo-

Many novelties have been planned by rial Hospital will be held this year at Latham Park June 5 from 2 until 7 o'clock

Many novelties have been planned by the different committees in the way of baskets, bags, fancy work and household goods of every kind and description. The following are on the committee in charge: Mrs. M. K. Neiffer, of Wyncote; Miss Susan Tulmor, of Wyncote; Mrs. William Robin-son, of Willow Grove; Mrs. Walter Eeils, of Elkins Park, and Miss Sara Pearson, of Jenkintown.

Mrs. John Gilbert, of Rydal, will give a dance for the nurses of the Abington Hospital, in the beautiful new nurses' home

The Alpha chapter of the Phi Delta Ps

Sorority will give its spring dance on Saturday evening at Wynnefield Country Club-for the benefit of the American Red Cross.

The committee in charge includes Miss Helen Chatham, Miss Mildred Conrey and

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Keeley entertained in honor of their daughter, Miss Urilla Keeley on her twentieth birthday last evening

Flags formed the decorations. The guests were Miss Dora Kurtz, Miss Margaret Mc-Ginnis, Miss Kathryn Mielke, Miss Kathryn Proud, Miss Ray Murtha, Miss Dorothy

Reineke, Miss Ruth Franks, Miss Mac

Budd, Miss Ann Roberts, Miss Mary Reilly Miss Beatrice Reed, Miss Alice Dunn, Miss

Mariorie Carlson, Miss Ruth Seigler, Miss

Ivy Richards, Miss Vernon Hellings, Miss Beatrice Thompson, Miss Aubrey Jackson, Mr. Leon Godshall, Mr. James Whitford.

Mr. Leo Cook, Mr. Simon McCloskey, Mr. Thomas Reider, Mr. Joseph Tierney, Mr. John Doyle, Mr. Harold Sieber, Mr. Robert

Gladfelter, Doctor Viegel, Mr. Earl Jackson

Along the Main Line

The marriage of Miss Julia Dorsey Mus-ser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mus-ser, of 17 Simpson road, Ardmore, and Mr.

Layton B. Register, of Haverford, will be solemnized at noon on Saturday, May 26, at St. Mary's Church, Ardmore. The matron of honor will be Mrs. Frederick Musser, of Bloomsburg, Pa., and the bridesmaids will be Miss Dorothy Grubb, of Ardmore; Miss

Dorothy Foltz, of Chestnut Hill; Miss Mary Johnston, of Wilmington, and Miss Kathe-rine Patterson, of Charlestown, W. Va., a cousin of Miss Musser.

Miss Anne Musser Evans, a little cousin of the bride, will be flower girl, and Master

William Wilson, of Detroit, nephew of the bride, will act as page.

Mr. Register will have his brother, Mr. H. Bartol Register as best man.

A small breakfast will immediately follow he ceremony, and will be attended only

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hoffecker, of the Athens Apartments, Ardmore, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daugh-

Along the Reading

The Rydal chapter of the Red Cross held its regular weekly meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. John Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mathieu have returned from their honeymoon and are oc-cupying their new home on Summit avenue, Jenkintown. Mrs. Mathieu will be remem-bered as Miss Eleanor Jones, of Jenkin-

There will be a class in dietetics started as a branch of study in Red Cross work for members of the Huntingdon Valley branch of that organization. The classes will be held in the Abington High School's domestic science department and will be conducted by the teacher of that study in

Mrs. Raiph W. Eaton, of Norwich, Conn.

is visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew K. Borda at her home on Cedar street, Jenkintown.

Germantown

A musicale will be given at the Delmar on May 23 for the benefit of the Red Cross work.

members of the families and a few

Miss Genevieve Long.

left on Sunday for the officers' training camp at Fort Niagara.

SUPPOSE you would like to know the names of the kiddies who judged the dolls that were entered in the show which took place out at the Billy Clothiers' today. They were awfully particular children, so I understand the dolls were the tiniest bit worried to see if their faces were washed and their dresses just the freshest they had on, and as to shoes and finger nails-well, believe me. they were careful.

For these were the judges: Margaretta Rowland, Katherine Stewart, Nan Fitler and Caroline Ashton. Don't you agree with me these dolls were right to be careful to have their hair brushed and curled and their sashes properly lied?

You know there was a baby show, too, but the prizes were not awarded by judges, but according to the amount of eash paid in by the grandpas and grandmas, uncles, aunts, sisters, brothers and fond parents. For the prizes were given according to the number of votes received by each baby, and some one expressed the hope that for the sake of Workman's Place and Main Line Branch No. 1 of the American Red Cross, the two beneficiaries for which all this excitement has been started, the votes would roll up to a majority the size of that which United States Senator Johnson received in California last November.

Do you know really this affair, which started in as a pony show about five years ago, has developed so with its many and various side shows that one does not always remember it is the Pony Show. But it was, you know, and the ponies, as well as the dolls and dogs, looked and did their best.

And Mrs. Clothier provided a dandy luncheen, which was served from noon on, so the dolls did not get hungry nor their judges either, for that matter, I heard that "Bella" Girvin, "Emlly" Hastings, "Dorothy" Brooke, "Annie" Brooke and "Francis" Fitler were among the stylish dolls who are entered for the Gladys Muller had charge of the movies, and they were wonders, they tell me. Gladys is still in the school set. so this was a decidedly interesting matter for her and her friends.

Mrs. Victor Mather, who was chairman of the pony show, announced the exhibitors: Elsie Cassatt Stewart, Anita Porter Clothler, Catherine B. Clothier. Frances Powell, Dorothy Clothier, Anita Strawbridge, Lydia Morris Clothier, Florence Clothier, the Kendrick children and the little Montgomery girls, Caroline Ashton, the little Devereux boy and girl, Pauline Munn, Katherine Snowden, Jean Scott, Frances Mills, Anne Ashton, Catherine Mather, Rita Dolan, Anne Chew, Georgina Yeatman, Billie Wister, Edward Fitch, 3d, Victor Mather, Jr., Alexander Cassatt, Thomas Wanamaker, Joe Ryan, Wilbur Klapp, Jr., Drexel Paul, Jr., Stacy Lloyd, Jr., Francis Lieber, Marlin Scott. Bill Ashton, Randolph Snowden, James Paul Mills, Ralph Pearson and Charles Mather, 2d.

A WORD of warning to the wise, you know! Well, she decided to give a shower to one of her friends the other day, and when the time came all the girls were sitting round watching the guest of honor open the packages and listening as she read the sentiments which were neatly inscribed on each card. When the hostess's present was opened the recipient's face had a woried look, and she said to the donor in a low voice: "I don't quite understand. Did you mean to be funny or is it because of the war times?" Imagine the consternation of the hostess and the delight of the other guests when the card was held up and on it were seen the words "Love and sympathy."

Of course, it was explained she had just taken a card out of her case in the dark and put it in without writing any sentiment upon it. And, you see, several days before it had been necessary to send a card of condolence to a friend, and the lines she had written were not straight, so she used another card and slipped the first one back into the case, on'y to bring it out on this inauspicious occasion. After all, the laugh over it started the ball rolling for the evening's NANCY WYNNE. fun.

Personals

Mrs. Thomas C. Foster announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Josephine C. Shippen Foster, to Mr. Douglas Southall Bright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rob-ert Southall Bright, of 7023 Germantown

Mrs. Clifford Lewis, of 30 South Twenty second street, will entertain the members of the Fortnigthly Euchre Club tomorrow.

Mrs. George Wentworth Carr. of 186; Wynnewood road, Overbrook, gave a lunch-eon yesterday to her daughter, Mrs. How-ard Freemont Okte. Mr. and Mrs. Okte. who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carr, will leave for their home. Lost Cabin. Wyo.. the latter part of the week.

Miss Elizabeth R. Reath, who has been traveling in California with Mr. and Mrs. William G. Warden and Miss Agnes Brokle, will return tomorrow to her home

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin H. Wilbur, of St.

Miss Marion Mulford entertained the bridge club of which she is a member at the Wyndhurst, her home in Wayne, yesterday. Among the members are Mrs. Channing W. Daniel, Miss Eleanor Verner.

Mrs. Herbert Treat, Mrs. Pennington Way, Miss Helen Wilson, Miss Watkin, Miss Rice, Mrs. Robert Daniel and the Misses Barris.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Derger, of Pittsburgh, spent the week-end with their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. William Baker Whelen, of Deyon.

Mrs. Walter Jenkins Phillips returned to er home in Bryn Mawr this week, after her home in Bryn Me visiting in Pittsburgh. and Mrs. George R. Yarrow have

Mr. Coleman Peace Brown, of Devon, left on Saturday for Fort Niagara. During his absence Mrs. Brown and her baby will visit her sister, Mrs. William B. Whelen, at

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Justice have re-celebrating the forty-eighth anniversary of Mrs. E. R. Littleton, of the Fairfax Apartments, has her cousin, Mrs. Jacob Hess, of Council Bluffs, Ia., as her guest for several days.

West Philadelphia

Mrs. Lawrence R. Reidnour, of Fifty-third street and Gainer read, entertained at cards today in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Bernard, whose marriage to Mr. Jay Wal-lace Colvin will take place on May 23. The guests were Mrs. Walter C. Zimmerman, Mrs. M. Gordon Brinckle, Mrs. Harold L. Miner, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Charles Lees, Mrs. Ira F. Puhrmann, Miss Malving Crban, Miss Helen C. McCoy, Miss Margaret Whitesides. Miss babel M. Bernard and Miss Elizabeth J. Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Bulkeley, of 5146 Hazel avenue, are visiting friends in York and Gettysburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Goldstein an-Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Goldstein antonneed the engagement of their daughter, Miss Catharine Gladys Smith, to Mr. Theodore Ashmoad Mehl, of Wayne, Pa., at a bridge Tuesday afternoon, given at their home, 26c6 Powelton avenue.

North Philadelphia

The marriage of Miss Helen R. Sullivan, of 1936 North Gratz street, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Su'livan, and Mr. John J. Abbott will be solemnized with a maptial mass on Tuesday morning, Jame 5, in St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic Church. Twenty-third and Berks street. Miss Mary P. Sullivan will attend her sister, and Mr. James A. Dougherty will be the bridegroom's best man. The at home cards are for after June 19 at 702 South Fifty-second street.

Dr. G. Walter H. Conrad, of Tioga and Eighth streets, has been appointed first floutenant of the medical corps of the re-serves of the United States army. Mrs. Conrad, who was Miss Edith Glichrist, is a registered nurse in Pennsylvania and will accompany the doctor to France.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Tomlinson, West Venango street, left on Saturday for York, Pa., were Mr. Tombinson will repre-sent Kenderton Lodge, No. 266, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at the annual State of her Bible cass, will give a "mitten party" tonight in the social hall of the Better Lutheran Church, Fifth street and

The Penn Renedicial Association held a general meeting last Sunday at 3027 West Dauphin street. The secretary, Mr. N. Hyman, made the opening address and gave a report of the association for the last three

The marriage of Miss Helen Fling, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Glen Fling, of Greene and Coulier streets, Germantown, and Mr. Richard M. Breed, son of Mr and Mrs. George Breed, also of Germantown, will take place on Saturday, June 2, in New Orleans, La., where Mr. Breed is stationed in the Navai Coast Reserve. Mr. L. Bernstine was quanimously elected and the periodic of the state o

> Invitations have been issued for a pack age party to be held on May 29 at the home of Mr. Ben Harris. 2029 North Twenty-nath street, in homer of the Maha Boys Club, which has just been organized. The Club, which has just been organized. The room in which the party will be held will be decorated with flowers of the club colors, arranged to spell the club's name.

The music will be furnished by the Maha Orchestra. Mr. I. Cishman will head the entertainment with his new one-act play, entitled "The Innocent Victim." This will be followed by Mr. S. Burns with his dramatic recitations and by the school act of Mr. M. Abrams. Mr. Ben Harris will give several dialogues. After the entertainment refreshments will be served.

Roxborough

Mr. Richard D. Woolley, of Noble, has Miss Elizabeth Carpenter entertained at left for the officers' training camp at Fort inncheon and cards today at her home in Norristown. Her guests were from this section and included Miss Elizabeth Hey. Miss Helen Rehfuss, Miss Roberta Ren Neilt. The Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Miss Midred Hey, Miss Jane Green, Miss Marian Clark, Mrs. Frederick Merrill Brecht, Mrs. Richard Hey, Mrs. Charles Kruger, Mrs. Harvey Motts and Mrs. Dames of America has issued invitations for an informa; talk to be given by Mr. Albert Cook Myers on "William Penn and His Times; Some Researches and Experi-ences," at Stenton Mansion on Thursday afternoon. May 24, at 3 o'clock. A patriotic address by Mr. Walter George Smith will follow. Tea will be served on the lawn. The Young Men's Literary Institute of the Falls of Schuylkill will give a novelty party, followed by a dance, on Saturday evening at their clubbouse, > tist Church will give an old-fashioned supper, preceded by an interesting program of evening in the Manayunk and Krams avenues. The Rev. B. Moyer, the rastor, will be toast

Weddings

DULLES-BRINTON A pretty wedding of interest to society took place today at St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, when Miss Anna Binney Brinton. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferree Brinton of 1913 Hittenhouse street, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Heatley Dulles, 2d. Th ceremony took place at 12:30 o'clock and was performed by the Rev. George Pomeroy Allen, rector of the church. Miss Brinton, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satir made with a court train. Orange blos-roms fastened the tulle veil here and there and she carried gardenias. Miss Caroline Ivea Erinton attended her sister as maid of honor, and wore a frock of flesh-color georgette and a black horsehair hat, faced with blue and trimmed with blue velvet streamers and tiny French roses. She carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, including Miss Grace Carter Beach, of Washington; Mrs. Cameron Macleod, of Boston; Miss Katherine de son, Miss Marjorie Paul Morris, Mrs. Rob ert Hare Davis and Miss Frances Tyson, wore white georgette frocks, made quite simply; large black and blue hats, trimmer with blue velves streamers, and carried arm bouquets of larkspur. Mr. Dulles had Mr. Bateman Dulles as best man, and had Mr. Bateman Duties as best man, and the ushers were Mr. H. Longstreth Brown, Mr. Halton Coward, Mr. William Lee Dick-son, Jr., Mr. Charles Dulles and Mr. Fred-erick R. Leidy. A reception followed at 104 South Twenty-first street. After an ex-tended wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Dulles will live at 4234 Chestnut street until the

BRAY-SCHLITTLER

The marriage of Miss Katharine Schlitt ler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlitt-ler, of 2410 North Twenty-ninth street, to Edwin W. Bray took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twenty-ninth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of which the bride is the organist, per-formed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Miss Anna K. Schlittler, Mr. Harry Fletcher Bray was his brother's best man. The service was followed by a largely attended reception. Doctor Bray and his bride left on a short western trip, and will be at home after May 25 at 3459 North

HARVEY-ELLIS

A wedding will be solemnized tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland R. Ellis, 4933 North Twelfth street, when their daughter. Miss Evelyn Ellis, will be mar-ried to Mr. Gilbert L. Harvey by the Rev. Dr. Dayton Roberts, of the Temple Presby-terian Church, Franklin and Thompson streets. Mr. Ellis will give his daughter in marriage, and she will be attended by Miss Arline Wickersham. The bride will wear a robe of brussells net and lace and a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. Miss Wickersham's gown is of white net trimmed with sliver lace. Mr. Joel Harvey will be his brother's best man. The cere-mony will be followed by a reception, Upon their return from an extended trip the bridegroom and bride will be at home at 4923 North Twelfth street and will re-

CARRYING IT TOO FAR

All she had done and sald appeared so natural it really occurred to me at once that she might be acting a part, seeking in this way to gain McCann's confidence in order to win from him the information we required. It was only as I sat there in slience, brooding over every detail, that this possible conception began to slowly dawn upon my mind. That she could trus the man in any way was virtually im-possible, for he had revealed to her his true character in so many ways the mem-ory could not be blotted out. No, her graciousness must be assumed to cloak a purpose; her quick womanly wit had in-stantly grasped the only avenue to escape. Why, how swiftly that wit had worked in her rapid explanation of our overheard con-versation. I could think of nothing to say; could call up, upon the spur of the mo-ment, no combination of circumstances which would make the spoken words sound intelligible. But she had; she had in-stantly fitted the very phrase which sounded the most suspicious into a remark so ex-tremely natural as to even convince Mc-Cann she spoke truly. Strange she should have thought of that; that she should have hit upon the very idea most apt to deceive him. I could hear her volce, soft, hesitating, repeating again the words; "Captain Hollis has asked me If—if I thought I could learn to like him, and I said I thought I could. That was all." It was an explanation no man would likely quesion; even in his suspicion and anger it arried conviction to McCann. And the words—embarrassing words they must have een-were spoken to save me; were uttered

As the full knowledge of this truth grew apparent I was able to view all that had occurred later in a different light. She had simply accepted her one chance; had grasped with womanly intuition the single weapon left at her command. All at once, inspired by sudden confidence, she had de-termined to fight out the battle alone.

Girl as she was in years, her experience in the world had been that of a woman, and she instinctively realized her power—the power of wealth, of beauty and of youth.

Possibly she was not wholly unaware that

McCarn exhibited already personal interest in her if not, she certainly felt confident in here if not, she certainly felt confident that she could arouse such interest if she made the endeavor. My questioning, my doubt, turned to admiration. It had been beautifully done, so deftly accomplished as to deceive even me. Aye! and the method had succeeded with McCann. I recalled the expression of surprise, of gratification, of awakened pride on the man's face. He had no power of resistance left; he was True, but would be remain so? The came she played was a dangerous one; if she ventured too far she would discover the brute lurking in him still. And he had the power, the physical power, to wreal vengeance once he suspected deceit. Hi money, his education, his force made his supreme on board; neither Liverpool o

White would venture to oppose any plan be might promulgate, and, with their backing, the mutinous crew would be found obedient enough. Indeed, they had gone so far already they must stick together nov

And there was no one to help her if she made a sirgle false step—absolutely no one; she was a lamb among wolves. I paced the narrow space, forgetful of all else except this peril which imagination pictured, paus-ing to listen at the door and glancing out the open port on the vista of sea and sky. God! how weak, how helpless I was—alone, was ready enough to perform a man's part out even this was denied me. Those fellow would never release me again, not for a moment. I would be compelled to take observations, to calculate position, to trace

The afternoon passed, dragging its weary

The afternoon passed, dragging its weary hours. Nothing happened to relieve the monotony and dread of solitude. No one approached the door of the stateroom, not even to offer me food, and my ears were able to distinguish no sound of movement in the main cabin. Occasionally footsteps passed along the deck overhead, and once or twice I heard the voice of Liverpoot sing out some order to the men forward. The already putty in her hands.

for mutual safety.

would see to that.

"My dear lady, I go further than believing in woman suffrage. I maintain that man and woman are equal in every way." "Oh, Professor! Now you're bragging." CONTRABAND

A Romance of the North Atlantic By RANDALL PARRISH

Chapter XXV Continued STEPPED forward, unable longer to re-I strain the action.

"You dog of a mar," I said fiercely. "I know you are armed, but......" "Wait. Captain Hollis." and her fingers caught my arm. "This matter involves me, and I wish to hear the facts. Go on,

McCann grinned into my face, but kept one hand behind him, gripping his revolver.
"There is not much to tell." he went on. almost jauntily. 'I saw exactly how things were going before we left the boat. I knew Hollis's reputation ashore, and determined to warn you of his purpose, but had no opportunity. Besides I felt you had so poor an opinion of me that probably you would not listen."

"You were greatly mistaken, Mr. Mc-Cann," she said pleasantly, "I would have gladly received your advice. You were my father's friend."

I could read the man's surprise in his face. The graciousness of her words was a shock, yet his egotism made him instantly

"You mean you trusted me? That you would have listened? "Most assuredly. How could you think anont assuredly. How could you think otherwise? I knew you were not yourself in the boat, and the treatment to which you were subjected was brutal. I owed my life to you equally with Captain Hollis, and am very grateful. I have never forand am very grateful. I have lever forgotten that you have been a guest in our home, a business associate of my father's. Why should I not have confidence in you?"

I looked at her in amazement, but her eyes never met mine. What sidd this mean? Was the girl acting a part? Was she endeavoring to deceive him, or was she speaking now in deadly carnest? Nothing pheres are not in the tone of her voice. in her manner or in the tone of her voice gave me a ciue. She appeared earnest, frank, sincere, and I held silent, realizing that whatever her secret purpose might but words of mine would change it. As for McCann, the very impression of his face pictured his delight, his conviction of her sincerity. It was almost too good to be true, yet his was not a nature to doubt his own attractiveness. 1-1-you surprise me," he stammered. absolutely forgetting my presence. "I--I assure you I was actuated by the highest motives in all my efforts. My-my duty was to you and your father. The interest between you and Hollis then has not gone so far as to be beyond my power to She smiled

"Oh, no: I assure you."
He turned and faced me, the bully in him surging to the surface.
"I will converse with Miss Carrington alone. You were ordered to your stateroom

'I did not so understand. I was merely

"I did not so understand. I was merely told to go below."

"Well, you understand now. Open the door; go in and close it."

To resist would have been utter foolishness. I could see the gleam of the gun in his hand and realized that he only required an excuse to use it. More, there was nothing in the expression of the girl's face to inspire me to realistance. She did not even glance toward me or exhibit the slightest interest. Yet never did I hate, despise the fellow more than at that instant. Every nerve in me throbbed with stant. Every nerve in me throbbed with the desire to reach out and crush him with my hands. Aye, and I would have done it, risking his shot, staking all on my strength and quickness, had I not seen at that mo-ment White appear at the head of the stairs, staring down at us his hand still gripping the door of the companion. Even as he the door of the companion. Even as he hesitated Dade emerged from the steward's nesitated Dade emerged from the steward's pantry laden with dishes. McCann saw them also, and his courage flared up. "Don't forget, Hollis," and his voice had in it the old harshness. "that you are no longer captain of the Indian Chief. Return

With hands clinched in impotent rage, not even venturing a reply, I stepped backward. As I crossed the threshold McCann closed the door, and I heard the key turn in the lock. No other sound reached my ears except a smothered laugh and the rattle of dishes as Dade deposited his load on the table. I waited a moment, bending rattle of dishes as Dade deposited his load on the table. I waited a moment, bending close to the wood, in the hopes of overhearing some scrap of conversation, but the intervening door was sufficiently solid to shut out all semblance of sound. Trembling still with auger and fased by the strange action of the girl I sank back upon the stock restricts my wilder helplesses.

waters and telling me the ship held to its southwest course, but the ocean, so far as I could see, remained desolate, the horizon unbroken by a gleam of sail or smudge of unbroken by a gleam of sail or smudge of smoke. No echo of a cry reached me from any lookout aloft. The vessel proceeded quietly, no effort being made apparently to achieve speed. I judged our rate would not exceed eight knots, and decided there was either a scarcity of men in the stokehole, or else they were conserving fuel to attain greater speed during the hours of darkness. The bright sunlight began to fade into a purple dusk.

A French Man-of-war

No FOOD was brought me during the afternoon, nor had I eaten all day, yet my mental state was such I had no consciousness of hunger. The rattle of dishes was about the only sound reaching me from the cabin making me aware of the passage of time. Thus I could determine when Dade set and cleared the table. The last meal of the day hung on until long after dark, and I had given up all thought of being remembered. The sea without was shrouded in blackness, except for the faint glimmer of starlight reflected along the crests of racing billows. Within I had dis-A French Man-of-war crests of racing billows. Within I had discovered no means of creating a light, al-though my eyes were sufficiently accus-tomed to the dimness to enable me to move about my narrow quarters safely enough.

From the sound of his voice, which occasionally reached me through the open port,
I was aware that Jim White had charge of the deck above, and the revolution of the screw indicated a marked incredin speed, probably to twelve knots.

It must have been between eight and nine o'clock when the key turned in the ock of my door and Liverpool looked in. The light from the swinging lamp in the main cabin flared into my eyes, blinding me, yet I recognized his face, and saw Dade close behind him bearing a tray. Neither man spoke, but Red, having assured him-self of my presence, stood aside and mo-tioned the steward to enter. The latter leposited the laden tray on the desk and hacked out silently, every movement show-ing him thoroughly cowed by his guardian. Realizing that any word from me would only result in insult I remained silent, and the two disappeared, closing and locking the door behind them. I confess I ate the food with relish, for it was well cooked and served with some daintiness. After a second cup of coffee I felt much more like my-self, rummaging through the captain's chest until I found some tobacco and a pipe, which I at once appropriated to my own use. No one returned for the emptied dishes, and I sat for a long while at the open port smoking, the blue spiral swept away by the rush of air and my eyes on the My mind was busy enough, far too busy to permit of sleep, yet my thoughts brought me nowhere. The situation, from my point of view, was absolutely hopeless. No doubt could break down the door, but this would only create an alarm, and I emerge into the grip of a dozen men. if free there was no possibility of my winning back control of the ship alone and unaided. Every weapon on board was in possession of the mutineers, and they were possession of the mutineers, and they were taking no chances on having their plans overturned. The leaders, at least, realized the desperate situation in which they had placed themselves by lawless action and would permit no one to stand in the path of their escape.

The very grim silence with which food had been given me intensified my feeling that no mercy was contemplated. They would use me; would command my knowledge of navigation, would compel me to guide them to the exact spot chosen—and then—what? The answer was a blank, a then-what? The answer was a blank, a silent horror into whose mystery I could no

(CONTINUED TOMORROW)

a prisoner, with no weapon at hand; no knowledge even of where the others on whom I could depend were confined. If I could plan, if I could even hope to act. I FORREST Daily, 2:15 Evenings, 8:15 UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE JULES VERNE'S THRILLING SUBMARINE DRAMA our sailing tourse on the chart, but not for an instant would I be left again unguarded, either on deck or in the cabin. McCann

20,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA

TIMELY ENTERTAINING! NOVEL! Nothing Like It on Earth PHOTOGRAPHED AT THE BOTTOM OF THE OCEAN AMIDST GREAT DANGERS MATS. 25c and 55c: EVGS. 25c to $1.00.
Reserved Seats in Advance.
Augmented Symptomy Orobostra.
TAKE THE CHILORUS TO THE TAKES

of Columbus, celebration of t

Master streets. Invitation.
Masque of American Drama, BoGardens, University of Pennsylvania, o'clock. Admission charge.
Drama night, Society of Arts and Il.
New Century Drawing Rooms, 124
Twelfth street, 8:15 o'clock. Invitati County Medical Society, meeting, Tsecond and Ludiow streets. Members.
Gold Fish Fanciers' Society, 506 avenue. Members.
Southeast Improvement Association

avenue. Members.
Southeast Improvement Association
ing. Douk's Hall. Passyunk avenu
Moore street, 8 o'clock. Free.
Dinner, Motoriruck Association, As Hotel, 6.30 o'clock. Members.
Dinner, Premier Building and Los sociation, Adelphia Hotel, 7 o'clock.

Concert, Municipal Band, Norris Secondario, Municipal Band, Norris Secondario, Concert, Municipal Band, Norris Secondario, Concert, Municipal Band, Norris Secondario, Philadelphia Professional Photograp dinner at Thommen's, 6:30 o'clock; I ing in Goldensky's studio, 1705 Charteet, 8 o'clock.

Wagner Free Institute of Science, cleaverches of lecture season, "Japan of day," by Dr. William E. Hughes, day," by Dr. William E. Hughes citle o'clock. Free, Centennial of general convention of ciety of New Jerusalem, Twenty-second at Chestnut streets. Free.

Franklin Institute, closing exercises, visitecture by Dr. William E. Hughes, still o'clock. Card.
Thirty-seventh anniversary Salvalle Army, parade from Broad street and Falemount avenue at 7 o'clock, with meeting a Baptist Temple, Broad and Berks streets at 8 o'clock. Free.
Italian Musicians of Philadelphia, conserved.

Italian Musicians of Philadelphia, or St. Luke's Church, Seventh street and Mont-gomery avenue. Admission charge,

ARCHBISHOP ADVISES MINERS

Urges Men to Work Steadily Even Ordinary Holy Days

HAZLETON, Pa., May 16.—In letters to the rectors of foreign-speaking churches of districts near Hazleton, Archbishop Prondergast advises the miners to work steadily and help keep anthracite production at the maximum.

They are urged to stay at work on the ordinary hely days, which meant idless for them in former years, and to attack a straight on the convenience, so they won't lose any time.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG in "THE EASI WAY" Still Delayed by the State Board And in Place Thereof: TODAY LAST TIMES

THE DEEMSTER

DERWENT HALL CAINE
By Literary Critica "The Deemster" is Cou
among the Most Powerful Novels Its Au
among the Most Powerful Novels Its Au
Has Wrought. The Gripping Story Has B
Screened With Marvelous Fidelity and Buco
THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY
MAE MURRAY in the

"PRIMROSE RING" PALACE 10 A. M. to 11:16 P. L.
MARGUERITE CLARK

in "THE VALENTINE GIRL" ARCADIA CHESTNUT Below 187
10:15 A. M., 12. 2. 31
ENID BENNETT In First Showing of " HAPPINESS" A Delightful Play of College Life TONIGHT EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION

WM. S. HART (Himself) WILL APPEAR THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY Bryant Washburn in First Showing of "SKINNER'S BUBBLE" By HENRY IRVING DODGE

REGENT MARKET Below 17TH EMMY WEHLIN SOWERS AND REAPER

VICTORIA MARKET Above OTIS ETHEL BARRYMORE "The Call of Her People" From Play "EGYPT." by Edward She

COME TO THE BRILLIANT OUTDOOR MASQUE OF AMERICAN DRAMA By de Koven-Trombly
University of Pennsylvania Botanical Gard Week of May 14th—Evenings at 5:15.
Saturday Matines. 700 PEOPLE-ORCHESTRA OF T Tickets 50c to $2 at Gimbels' & Houston C The entire proceeds will be devoted to the entire proceeds will be devoted to the entire process will be devoted to the entire process will be devoted to the contract of the University Military Base House

HERBORN CHILD UNBORN CHILD

William Penn High School MOTION PICTURES OF THE SCHOOLS OF THE Greatest Story of Child Life Ever Fu SWIMMING, WRESTLING, SKATING, ANIMAL LIFE, GARDENING THURSDAY, MAY 17, 8 P. M. ADMISSION FREE

Julia Arthur Keith's "Liberty Aflame"

THEATRE "Edge of the Work
"The Corner Store"; Dyer & Fay; Grace
Mar; Bernard & Janis; Rob't L. Dalley &

GLOBE Theatre MARKET (UNIPER VALUE - Continue 11 A. M. to 11 P. "MISS MATCHED MIS "TANGO SHOES"

CROSS KEYS MARKET Below & LONESOME ISLE BROADWAY BROAD AND BUT

"The Girl in the Gown ! Adelphi Tonight at $120. Reg. Mat. NAZIMOVA in "CEPT

LYRIC Popular $1 Mat. Today. "SO LONG LETTY"

ORPHEUM GOTTONE Mutt & Jeff Dive